THE Mexican Congress is reported to have abolished capital punishment.

SEVERAL packages of grape cuttings passed heretofore for Thos. Barnum on Salt River.

THE weather has been splendid during the week—rain of Tuesday night laid the dust and brightened up vegetation.

DR. PHELPS, who went to Guaymas with Capt. Mowry, is reported gone to Mazatlan, and will return to Tucson via 'Frisco.

CAPT. E. V. SUMNER, and First Lieuts. Moses Harris and W. H. Winters, all of the First Cavalry, have been assigned to the recruiting service. This service is deemed desirable, and we are quite sure the latter two officers are entitled to the favor, and for aught we know the first one also.

OFF FOR CAMP THOMAS.—Mr. Herbert Lord and Lt. Bonus departed for this place this A. M., taking with them a lot of merchandise and commissary stores. Mr. Lord spent over six months of 1870 in that rejuvenating region, and the result was greatly improved health. He will spend from 60 to 90 days there again, and we hope he may return still more robust.

W. W. WILLIAMS, of the firm of Lord & Williams, departed Thursday for New York via California, intending to be absent about three months. If our good wishes will do Mr. W. any good, he will have a safe, pleasant and profitable trip. As far as we've been able to ascertain in nearly a year's acquaintance, he is in every way an upright, estimable man.

JACOB WITTMER, a Swede, aged about 55 years, died in extreme poverty, in Tucson, Jan. 22, 1871. He was only 16 years old when he reached the United States from the Canton of Salothern. He soon after enlisted in the U. S. army and served therein over thirty years, and was among the first cavalry that ever entered Arizona. He latterly received aid from the charitable, prominent among whom was Jacob Shaulin, Esq. We are not aware that imprudence rendered him a subject of alms.

SUPPOSED POISONING.—A report reaches here apparently well founded, that John Kilbride, of Mohawk Station, on the Gila, died recently from the effects of poison administered by a cook. Not long since his wife left him, and it is believed to have been the work of her instigation. Just after the Mission Camp massacre, the common remark along the Gila was, "John Kilbride's turn comes next," and he seemed to feel that he was a doomed man. Threats against his life were numerous, mostly following family complications.

ATTEMPT AND FAILURE TO POISON.—On the morning of the 20th, several persons at Gila Bend barely escaped death in consequence of the ignorance of the person who drugged their coffee with strychnine, by putting in an overdose. Many suspicious rest upon the cook, Thos. W. Jones, who, without intimating his purpose to anyone, left the station, and was seen several times on the road to and nearly at Tucson. He will probably be arrested ere this item greets our readers, and a judicial examination of the case be made. Mr. Decker, of Gila Bend, thinks a purpose to rob the station prompted the attempted murder.

P. S. Since the above was in type, Mr. Jones has been captured. Yesterday the Governor offered $250.00 reward, and soon after under-sheriff Douglas, constable Miller, C. O. Brown and Sam McClatchy took the Sonora trail, and found their man about 25 miles south, and he is now in jail.

Hon. Reese Smith, who has fought and farmed it by turns in this county for some years, until about worn out in body and quite disgusted otherwise, informs us that the Apaches started in at his ranch above Tubac on Monday morning last (23d), and secured along down the river past Calabasas as far as Tumocacana, where they made a success of it—shooting (through the groin doubtless fatally) a Portuguese known as 'Joe,' and getting away with four horses. Our informant says there were from ten to fifteen Indians, and that the wounded man was shot with an improved weapon. Also, that the citizens are generally leaving the valley and sending their stock to Sonora. He says two families, neighbors of his, have come to Tucson in consequence. It is useless to comment on these raids singly; the facts (all we want, speaking in paradox) are ample to send abroad nowadays.

LEGISLATIVE VISIT TO ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY.

Pursuant to a formal invitation, on Thursday both branches and attachés of the Legislature visited this institution. Governor Safford and Judge Tweed were present. The usual order of entrance was observed, and the Mother Superior and Bishop Salpointe gave the visitors hearty welcome, conducted them into the sitting-room, thence into the principal school apartment, where they again received a pleasurable reception in fitting and sensible remarks by Misses Minnie L. Robinson and Jennie Dunn. Apt responses were made by Governor Safford, President Stickney and Speaker Dobbins, after which the guests were conducted through all the apartments of the building, and were delighted with the neatness and order everywhere prevalent. Upon a return to the sitting-room, they were entertained with excellent music on the piano by Misses Minnie L. Robinson, Lillie Lee, Louisa Oury and M. Orosko. The progress of these misses on the piano was regarded as astonishing, and held to be proof of the facility and thoroughness of the Sisters' teaching. The visitors were all gratified with the appearance and management of the Academy, and doubtless will send abroad many fruitful expressions therefor. The Sisters are doing much good work in Tucson, and they ought to prosper accordingly. After the addresses of welcome by Misses Robinson and Dunn, the young ladies, generally, sang the following:

Come, cheerful companions, unite in this
Here's to the friends we love; [song,
May bountiful heaven their sweet lives pro-
Here's to the friends we love. [long.

CHORUS.
Oh, oh! sympathy deepens whene'er we sing;
Friendship's the mystical word in our ring.
Here's to our friends!
Here's to the friends we love!

And first, the dear parents who watch o'er

ARIZONA FINANCES.

Report of the House Committee on Ways and Means—Magnificent Exhibit for the Territory, Auditor and Treasurer.

MR. SPEAKER: The Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the Reports of the Territorial Auditor and Treasurer, have had the several reports under consideration, and report that we have carefully examined and compared the books, papers and moneys in the hands of the Treasurer, with the several reports of said officers submitted to the Hon. Body over which you preside, and find that the books of both officers are correctly kept, and that the statements therein contained agree and compare, and that in the opinion of the Committee are absolutely correct. We find by the statements commencing November 1, 1868, and ending January 12th, 1871, that the total receipts during that period have been from all sources $39,111.05, and the total disbursements for the same period have been $34,930.11, leaving a balance in the hands of the Territorial Treasurer, on the 12th day of January, 1871, of $4,180.94. We find that the total amount of indebtedness of the Territory on the 1st of November, 1868, to have been $26,012.17. The total amount of disbursements since November 1, 1868 to January 12, 1871, to have been as follows:—Outstanding gold bonds bearing interest at ten per cent. per annum in gold, computed in currency, amount to $16,024.48, and interest thereon computed in currency, amounts to $3,605.54, making a total of principal and interest of $19,630.02. Outstanding warrants issued prior to November 1, 1868, amount to $4,949.85, and interest computed thereon at ten per cent. per annum, amounts to $1,432.28; total amount of principal and interest $6,382.13, being the total amount of indebtedness owed by the Territory prior to November 1, 1868, and amounting in the aggregate to $26,012.17, all of which indebtedness has been paid. The current expenses for the same period have been as follows: For Territorial Library, Weights and Measures, $1,670.06; expenses of Supreme Court $340.25; Salary of Territorial Officers, $3,675.69; Boarding, Care, &c., Territorial Prisoners, $2,051.53; Territorial Printing, $576.25; Apprehension of Criminals, $500; and Miscellaneous Purposes, $134. Total amount of current expenses for the same period, $8,947.94.

Too much credit cannot be accorded to John B. Allen, Territorial Treasurer, for his efficiency, and the manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office; and the thanks of the people of the whole Territory are due to him for the present gratifying condition of the financial affairs of the Territory.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
Thos. J. Bidwell, Chairman.
All members of the Committee approved the foregoing report.

THE Governor, Jan. 24th, appointed Ira Mabbett, of Arizona City, Probate Judge of Yuma county. This is a wise selection, and if the appointee prove to be as good judge of the affairs of the dead as he is of the living, of which we make no doubt, great honor will attend the administration of the Probate office in Yuma county.

SEE Richard & Co.'s lumber notice.

GOVERNOR SAFFORD, with Messrs. Lee, Scott and Simpson this week visited the Lee & Scott mine, about 15 miles south-west of town. Mr. Simpson has had large experience in working silver mines in Mexico, and both he and the Governor were much pleased with the appearance of this mine, which has had mention heretofore in these columns.

Were it not for the Apaches, this mine would now be giving employment to many men and making a constant market for the produce of merchants and farmers, and this is the kind of market most desired by our people instead of the uncertain and transient one of government. In consequence of the many attacks and thefts of their animals by Indians, the owners, about two years ago, felt obliged to cease work on this property and have deemed it imprudent to recommence it. The party making this visit, report fresh Apache tracks all over the hills between here and the mine. They crossed two trails, probably the same made by the stock recently stolen at San Xavier and from the Papagoes.

Our people must be constantly watchful, as the hostile Indians have never been more active and daring than now. John Montgomery, on the San Pedro, has just had a valuable horse stolen, and elsewhere is an account of a successful Apache theft on the Gila. Hardly a day passes that some one is not killed or robbed. How long a powerful government intends to permit her citizens to be thus cruelly wronged, remains to be developed. That many of our citizens, who gave the highest proofs of their devotion to their country in its hour of severest trial, are becoming discouraged, cannot be denied in truth. The largest and most valuable share of Arizona from north of Prescott to the Sonora line, and from the New Mexico boundary to far west of Tucson and Prescott, is now unsafe for any man to traverse alone, especially in daylight, and recent advices show that night attacks are practised—as instance Lieut. Cradlebaugh's case between Prescott and Camp Verde.

With these facts staring everybody in the face, our citizens have little hope of preserving what property they have, to say nothing of the impossibility of building up permanent industries and markets of their own. "Let us have peace," and Arizona can and will prosper on her merits.

A LETTER from Gen. Stoneman, of date Jan. 12th, at Drum Barracks, has lately been received in Tucson, which we had the pleasure of perusing. From it we learn that the order withdrawing troops from Arizona will leave but one Troop of cavalry at Bowie and one at Grant, and but one Co. of infantry at Thomas and one at McDowell, with Lt. Cushing's troop as a "float." It would be impossible to replace the troops withdrawn, from any posts in the Department, and thus a system of pickets that was intended to be established from Picacho to Apache Pass is made impossible. An earnest desire is expressed by the General to afford the amplest protection with the means at his disposal.

FAVORS.—Adjutant General E. W. Stone has our thanks for late circulars and orders relating to military affairs in Arizona; also, for a roster of troops serving in the Department. Surgeon E. J. Bailey is announced as Medical Director; and commanders of companies serving in this Department which are supplied with arms manufactured prior to 1868, will at once make requisitions for the requisite number of arms of a new pattern.

WELLS FARGO & Co., should establish an office in Tucson. With tri-weekly communication, business in their line is increasing here, and we believe an agent sent out to report would do so favorably.

MORE PILLS.—Dr. Wilbur advertises that hereafter he can be found in Tucson and at what place—near the Convent. Bodies and souls put through to order? The Doctor is well spoken of and will no doubt get a good practice.

THE Arizonan utters a malicious lie this morning against the Surveyor-General. Not the least iota of truth in its statement.
